

Helpful Hints for Visiting!

We hope your visit to the Ah-Tah-Thi-Ki Museum will be memorable! Please review the following information to ensure a smooth trip.

Getting Here

Make sure to give yourself enough time to get to the museum. Directions can be found here: <http://www.ahthiki.com/downloads/Map.pdf>. Parking is free.

Payment

Balances must be paid in full on the day of your visit. We accept cash, credit cards, and checks. If paying by check, please make sure it is made out to the Ah-Tah-Thi-Ki Museum and ensure that the amount is correct. We are unable to refund check overpayments.

On Arrival

In order to get your group off to a great start, please consider the following:

- Select a lead to handle payment and to gather a final tally of the number of participants including chaperones.
- Remind visitors to leave backpacks and large bags on the bus.
- Remind group members that they are on a reservation and should act respectfully.

Rules

Before your visit, please share these rules with your group members and leaders. Please remind chaperones that we appreciate their help managing students and ensuring that rules are followed.

- No food or drink is allowed inside the Museum.
- Cameras are allowed, but flash photography is not.
- Smoking is not permitted.
- Touching exhibit displays or wildlife is prohibited.
- Participants are expected to follow tour guide directions.

Snacks

Please remember that food is not allowed in the museum. Snacks may be eaten in the parking lot or outside the front entrance of the museum.

Lunch

The museum does not offer any concessions, but you are welcome to bring your own lunch. The museum can store your coolers for you, but we are unable to refrigerate food items. The museum has picnic tables where you can eat in designated areas on campus. If you chose not to bring your lunch, there are four dining establishments available throughout the Big Cypress Reservation (hours vary).

Museum Store

The museum does have a gift store with a wide variety of items. Please advise group members accordingly. The museum store accepts cash, credit, debit, and check.

Consider bringing...

- A sweater- it can get cold in the museum!
- Mosquito repellent and sunscreen for walking the boardwalk
- Money for purchasing items in the gift store or purchasing crafts from Tribal members working in the village (cash only)
- Snacks or lunch

Please be aware...

Some activities are subject to cancellation or change without notice due to cultural or weather related reasons.

Changes in Plan

Please notify us as soon as possible if there are changes in your plans and you need to change your date or cancel your trip. Failure to do so may affect your ability to visit the museum in the future.

We look forward to your visit!
